

Between Father and Daughter: Exploring the Career and Influence of Judith Kaplan Eisenstein

with Rabbi Elizabeth Bolton

Sunday, March 23, 2025

3pm Eastern Daylight Time (EDT)

The story of Dr. Judith K. Eisenstein, Mordecai Kaplan's eldest daughter, is undertold and deserving of attention. She was an educator and an ethnomusicologist, and her accomplishments not only established her as an innovator in her own right, but also as a concrete expression of her father's views on Jewish communal life and theology. A musician and teacher of nusach herself, Rabbi Elizabeth Bolton has begun the work of understanding Judith's immense contributions to the field of Jewish musicology.

March 23 Webinar Registration